

Taipei 2017 29th Summer Universiade Volunteer Recruitment Brochure

Approved by affairs council of department of human resources of executive committee on Nov. 11, 2015.

Purpose of recruitment :

2017 29th Summer Universiade will be held in Taipei from August 19 to August 30, 2017. This is an international multi-sport event for university athletes between the age of 17 and 28 that is staged every two years. It is divided into a Winter and Summer Universiade and is often called the “Small Olympics.” The number of participating countries and athletes are only second to the Olympics (<http://2017.taipei>). Over the years, more than 150 countries and over 7500 athletes and officials all over the world have participated in this event.

Volunteers play a vital role in the success of the event. We therefore would like to welcome all college students aged 18 and above with a ability to communicate in Chinese, English, and a third language to become volunteers of Taipei 2017 29th Summer Universiade. This is an opportunity for you to serve as an international volunteer, to improve your international communication skills, and accumulate work experience. If you are enthusiastic about serving people and broadening your horizons, you are most welcome to sign up as a volunteer for the Taipei 2017 29th Summer Universiade!
