

MEMORANDUM OF UNDERSTANDING

BETWEEN

THE UNIVERSITY OF STIRLING

AND

NATIONAL TAIWAN SPORT UNIVERSITY

1. The University of Stirling (Scotland's University of Sporting Excellence) and the National Taiwan Sport University (Taoyuan, Taiwan), hereby agree to encourage academic cooperation through research and study in furtherance of the advancement of learning as stipulated below:
 - To encourage visits by departments from one university to the other for the purpose of engaging in educational activities;
 - To facilitate the admission of qualified students from one university to the other for the purpose of enrolling in graduate programmes, and in the case of advanced graduate students, participating in research;
 - To foster the exchange of academic publications and scholarly information; and
 - To promote other academic activities which enhance the above mentioned goals.
2. Both universities acknowledge that visits by departments/faculty and students from one university to the other shall be subject to the entry and visa regulations of the United Kingdom and Taiwan and shall comply with the regulations and policies of the University of Stirling and the National Taiwan Sport University.
3. Both universities agree that all expenses, including research and teaching material, international and domestic travel, per diem, honoraria and all other costs, shall be as agreed in negotiated contracts.
4. Both universities agree to review this Memorandum of Understanding after five years following the date of signing. It shall be automatically renewed for successive five-year periods unless either party gives the other written notice of its desire to either terminate or revise this Memorandum twelve months prior to the termination of a given five-year period.
